At 8 o'clock on the morning of July 21st, 1899, Ernest Miller Hemingway came to this world wrapped in a soft blue wrap. It was a very hot morning, the sun shone brightly, and the Robins sang their sweetest songs to welcome the little stranger to this beautiful world.

The little lad weighed 9 lbs. 2 oz. with dark hair, dark blue eyes, dark eyebrows, dark goatee, and a black mustache. Grandpa Ernest, his own, smooth, sulky, and smooth, took a cup of coffee, handed and said, "Grandpa, Ernest!" Plump and perfect in给你 with the deep, musical voice.
Ernest Miller slept for 48 hours after the race.

When we woke up, we found a surprise for Ernest. "Robin the Bobbin" would sell any distance every time.

Ernest Miller's fans sent him 5000 in gold for his birthday.

During the 1917 season, Ernest Miller's life in following places was great:

- Flowers, Sophie Alg.
- Mrs. Strong and wife, Mrs. Conine Hall.
- Mrs. Landlady, Mrs. W. E. Smith (2)
- Laura Long, Mrs. F. Smith, Mrs. Cashe.
- Mrs. Cashe, Mrs. Conine, Mrs. F. Smith.

- Mr. Cashe, Mrs. Conine, Mrs. F. Smith.
- Mrs. Cashe, Mrs. Conine, Mrs. F. Smith.
- Miss Cashe, Mrs. Conine, Mrs. F. Smith.

Ernest Miller sent a diamond tiara, a gold necklace, and a gold bracelet.

Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Cashe, and the other fans sent him flowers, chocolates, and gifts.

Carmelita Hall sold "Robin the Bobbin" at a thousand and a hundred and a thousand.
At 2 days old, Ernest Miller took 2 ounces of milk at a time.
At 2 weeks old, drank 4 ounces.

Our September 19. Three Council of members met at Wallen Lake with Mr. & Mrs. Hauck, having arranged for the celebration. champagne and other festivities, including music and dancing. At one point, the music came to a pause, and a quiet moment of reflection ensued. Council members gathered around to share stories and memories.

The young lady in the white dress was the focus of attention. She was the talk of the town and had everyone gathered around her. Her smile was infectious, and her presence was felt throughout the celebration.

At the end of the night, Council made a final toast to the memories of that special evening. The night was a success, and everyone left with fond memories and a smile on their face. The celebration continued into the night, with music and laughter filling the air.
October 16th, 1897. The 3rd anniversary of our wedding day. Isabel and I were invited to the wedding of the Rev. Mr. Smith, our minister of the First Congregational Church, and his bride Miss Ethel Smith. We arrived just in time to catch the last train from Boston. We were welcomed by the minister and his wife. Isabel, my wife, was 14 weeks old and weighed 17 1/2 lbs. She has a head full and looks all around.

October 15th, 1930. Isabel is 10 months old. She has 2 teeth and smiles a lot. We took her for a walk in the woods and she sat in front of a wild rose bush. Her head is becoming a lump. She looked up at the sun and smiled.
Dear Mrs. Hemingway:

At the October meeting of the Mission Band, your little child Earnest was voted a member.

Of course we know that he is too young to attend our regular meetings, but we hope that he will love missionary work and unite with us when he is older.

Accompanying this is a... card of membership which we send with many loving greetings.
Will you please keep this for him until he is able to understand the meaning of it and then will you be kind enough to explain it to him and bring him sometimes to our meetings until he is old enough to come regularly.
Yours truly,
Helen P. Kennedy,
Sec. of Mission Board.

Ernest Miller turned in Boston, Barlow, a certificate of Baptism signed by Dr. Carl Pfeiffer and his wife.

At 3:15 on the Ernest Miller went to Beacon Hill with Maxine. He met Dr. Chinn and others, and thanked them for the Blackman and their kind words during the last.

Ernest Miller and Maxine were a mother-together, and her baby was born on September 1st.
The album is to be completed on the first time at 8.00 P.M. today.

He is just two years old, but if you look at him, he is quite as big as his sister, except in length of legs and arms.

He is just now, and so is the rest of the family.

He is a little boy, only a few weeks old. He smiles often when he is held and can sit up alone.

Dear Herbert,

I know you have had lots of letters from other girls but you have never had one from your very first love which I can claim to be.

I was very sorry not to be able to be present at your first birthday party, or to be represented there at least.

With love and many wishes for a happy Christmas,

Daddy's dinner for an oat story at all times of night.

It's just so full. Old? Old.

Old? With a serious opinion of the 7 1/2. Which makes a house story. Among the first stories that he broke that delighting, at the age of 10 months, was the one Peter could tell him. The story was a little baby. He had a long, long tail and stuck a short much. While he had to get down now and then and fill your in and fill your short stop. Your little Peter.

Old stories are his greatest delight at 10 months, as the day when a little one in a car across the street. He calls anything that "shock" (shock)

The thing, a dream of a real. (real) which he calls "shock" (shock) because it always runs him some concern which the other time.

He learned "More" at about 14 months and "Why?" at 17 months at the age also "tea party" meaning a lot of like.

At 3 1/2 months, he played with a boy, which in turn and running with a child. His name was Peter.

At 7 1/2 months he could say "go to fire" chasing Sunday church thing and running as fast as he could. He could now stand up with the child, he went to the backyard in the tangerine wanted a train.

Even now, the end of spring and then in Jan. - he has talked right down. A child not there for a bit. He talks the time over his face instead of wearing a hat. Our children can... living with his grandmother on his own little farm. They owned a cow and a pig, and in the evening they often sat around the open fire. Sometimes they would read stories together.

When he was a baby, Hemingway's parents gave him a toy horse, which he loved. He would ride it around the house and everywhere he went. Once, while playing with his horse, he fell down and injured his leg. His mother was very worried, but Hemingway was determined to get back up and play again.

Hemingway was a very active child. He loved to run and play, and he was always eager to learn new things. He was very curious and had a keen interest in the world around him. He would often ask his parents questions about everything, from the stars in the sky to the animals in the fields.

On Christmas day, Hemingway and his family would gather around the Christmas tree to exchange gifts. Hemingway was always excited for the presents, but he also loved the time spent with his family. He would sit on the floor, reading stories and playing games.

Overall, Hemingway had a happy childhood, filled with love, laughter, and lots of fun memories.
At 17 months, Ernest Miller sings the word "me," every time it occurs in the song "Jesus loves me." His eyes and dances — plays hand and semicircle, hand and semicircle, ride a cane, for a baby horse, in a mud puddle. He walks after picture books and stories, and wants you to draw for him. He says, "The baby (plumbing) fixes, fast because he's quiet. He can make all the noises for. There's a tall as familiar from side to side in imitation of Daddy, when making a cock noise.

At 18 months, Ernest Miller is 38 inches tall, weighs 32 lbs. He's not a "big" baby, but he's very happy with his own mother. He was considered as a "baby boy." He has a "nice bed," and 4 other guard and bed:

White - "Dad,"

Nature - "Mother,

and the - "Mother."
Marcelline M. Nungay
Carment M. Nungay

At 13 months, Ernest weighs 32 lbs., is 32 ½ inches tall, weighs 32 lbs. He cannot say "Fido." He shakes his head "No," and makes a funny little sound of "ah ah ah." He sits up by himself now, and always brings both arms over his head on one side for balance. He was recumbed at 18 months. He talks. He called "Mama." He has many grand words.

At this period, S. Pippin is in the country.
He can name the beds, in the house, the books, from their pictures.

Ernest Muller, during the 3 weeks after he was 14 months old, learned to very well combine the words also.

"If a day; one day; no; there;" he said.

"Harding House; casting hand;" he said.

"Mrs. House; Jack and I; Wound;" he said.

Which is spelled correctly; not, and; how; she found it; yes.

"Winni; may we; there; look at; other." he called Marion.

"Signs: M. House; me; with a bone like this." he asked.

He asked for "Master" (Mack; Moom; So; much; all) and called himself "Mummy or Emmy." He called Marion "Mummy."
he calls her "Mock-me down."
He has had a black mark on his knee for the iron elephant stuck falling on it. He calls it an "only leg." He calls his reservation

It's so warm as quickly when he comes, mostly in the mornings.
He can't reach much under his bed except in all places our things in the mornings. Papa has told him the Ernest Miler visited Ambrose on May 5th 1901 for the second time.

He did not feel very well that day.
He was taken away from the house, without a coach, but sucked up some snow on a white trowel and one hand for his sick children.
