

Celebrate!* with Benkadi Drum and Dance

You can participate in the call and response of the video program from anywhere.

Call: Due due barima due due
Response: Due due barima due due
Call: Due due barima due due
Response: Due due barima due due
Call: Abofraba ama wa da wa due due
Response: Abofra ba ama wa da wa due due
Call: Abofra ba ama wa da wa due due
Response: Abofra ba ama wa da wa due due
Call: Barima due due
Response: Barima due due
Call: Barima due due
Response: Barima due due

This is a children's song from Ghana and is sung in Twi (Ashanti) language. It literally translates to "Sorry senior man sorry. This small boy has made you fall flat sorry, sorry."

DUE DUE means sorry, sorry

BARIMA means a man/young man/boy (simply a male)

ABOFRA BA means a young boy/young girl

AMA WA DA WAA means you have fallen flat or helplessly