

First Amendment Freedom

5 Rights in the 1st Amendment

R is for Religion: The freedom to choose what religion to practice (or to choose no religion at all)

A is for Assembly: The freedom to peacefully gather (assemble) and address important issues

P is for Press - The freedom of news organizations to report about what is going on in the world

P is also for Petition - The freedom to write to government officials with our opinions and ideas

S is for Speech - The freedom to share our perspectives about things happening in the world