

The U.S. Senator John F. Kennedy Story

1958

16mm, b/w, sof, "A" wind print. 915' from first picture frame to tail punch.

Source: Rec'd from the White House 2-7-63 through Holborn's office.

Item 1 on list prepared by Frank Harrington 4-29-62.

Producer: Senate Film Studio(?) for Senator Kennedy

This promotional film was produced for Senator Kennedy's 1958 re-election campaign. Highlights of his political career using stills and edited film footage: Kennedy with Mansfield and Johnson; questioning Hoffa during McClellan Hearings; calling for unanimous nomination of Estes Kefauver. A few shots of Kennedy with his wife and daughter appear toward the end of the film. A number of transitional shots were made in the Senator's office particularly for this film.

Shot List

- 0'- First picture frame
- 5'- Miscellaneous shots of Washington, D.C. Announcer voiceover.
- 38'- Shots around Senator Kennedy's office. Several staff members and then Senator Kennedy make remarks.
- 116'- Edited footage highlighting political career. Kennedy voiceover.
- 840'- Senator Kennedy with wife Jacqueline and daughter Caroline [JBK, CBK, at Georgetown residence].
- 887'- Miscellaneous shots around Washington
- 915'- Tail punch sync